CHECKED IN THEIR ADVANCE BY THE speady action of Hostetter's Pitters, dyserials, nervous indisposition, constitution and billious complaints cased to harass the invalid. That they will instantly give ground is not pretended, but no needical fact is more certain, or avocabed by more competent testimony, than that these maladies, and others to which it is adapted, entirely succemb to the influence of the medicine, if it be given a fair trial. Their total, if not instant rout, is certain to ensue. Losses of strength are repaired, and failure of appetite and nerve are repaired, and failurs of appetite and nerve quietude are remedied by the Bitters; and as the stomach grows stronger and assimilation is aided by its action, a gain in flash will follow. Ledies in delicate health, aged persons and convalescents, derive bodily and mental solace from its use, and experience none of the repugnance which ordinary tonics frequently inspire. The emphatic recommendation of physicians con-frms the verdict in its favor.
